

665. The commanding officer of the company shall forthwith cause such return to be entered in his company book, and within five days after each of said meetings shall transmit a copy of the same to the commanding officer of his regiment, together with a consolidated return of the strength of his company, which consolidated return shall be entered on the books of the regiment.

666. At the meeting directed by this article for the division review and regimental parades, the commanding officer of each regiment shall cause the names of all the regimental and staff officers of the regiment to be called over by the adjutant, or such person as he may appoint, who shall note those who are absent, and within two days after each of said meetings shall make return in writing of such absentees to the commanding officer of his regiment, and if he shall refuse or neglect to do so, he shall be fined a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

667. The commanding officer of the regiment shall forthwith cause the said return to be entered in his regimental book, and within ten days after each of said meetings shall transmit a copy of the same to the commanding officer of the brigade to which he belongs, together with a consolidated return of the strength of his regiment, which consolidated return shall be entered upon the books of the brigade.

668. The commanding officer of each brigade shall, within twenty days after each division review, transmit to the commanding officer of the division a consolidated return of the strength of his brigade, which shall be entered on the books of the division.

669. The commanding officer of the division shall, within ten days after the receipt of the returns from the commanding officers of the brigades, transmit to the adjutant general of this State a consolidated return of the strength of his division.

670. If any officer shall neglect or refuse to discharge the duty imposed upon him to make the aforesaid returns, he shall be fined a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

671. It shall be the duty of the oldest colonel in rank, on parade in each brigade, to ascertain and report in writing to the