

such sum as the commanding officer of the division shall require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of collector of fines of said division.

700. It shall be the duty of all officers to whom returns are made by any courts, within ten days after receiving lists of fines from courts of appeal, or from courts martial, to place copies thereof in the hands of the said division collector, and to take his receipt for the said list, or a duplicate of the same; and if any officer shall neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this or the preceding section, he shall be fined a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

701. There shall, upon the recommendation of the major generals respectively, be commissioned in each division a division paymaster, with the rank of major, who, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall give bond with security to the State of Maryland, in such sum as the commanding officer of the division shall require, for the faithful performance of his duties as paymaster, that is to say, for the safe keeping of all moneys paid into his hands by the collector, and for the keeping and returning a true and just account of the same to the commanding officer of the division when thereunto required, and for the paying over the whole or such parts of said moneys as may be drawn for by him for repairs of arms, expenses of music, and other incidental expenses, and for paying over any surplus or balance in his hands when thereunto required by the commanding officers of the said divisions, acting as a board as herein provided.

702. The collector shall collect all fines placed in his hands, and shall account for the moneys collected by him and pay over the same when thereunto required to the division paymaster, subject to such deductions for commissions and under such other regulations as may have been established by the commanding officer of the division.

703. The paymasters shall be allowed such commissions and shall conform to such regulations as may be established by the commanding officer of the division.

704. If any officer shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of the two preceding sections as required of him, he
