

726. No officer, non-commissioned officer, private or musician of the militia, in his attendance at, going to or returning from muster, shall be subject to arrest for any civil matter, nor shall his military equipments be subject to distress, attachment or execution for debt.

727. If any officer, non-commissioned officer, private or musician, who may have provided himself with uniform and arms, or who hath been uniformed in pursuance of this law, or who hath received arms the property of the State, shall appear on parade at any of the meetings prescribed in this article without uniform or arms, he shall be fined a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

728. It shall be the duty of the commanding officer of each company district making the enrolment as directed hereinbefore, to take a list of each person in his district who is conscientiously scrupulous of bearing arms, that shall come to his knowledge, and return the same to the commanding officer of his regiment on or before the first day of October in each year, and the commanding officer of the regiment shall make out two lists thereof, including also all persons who may otherwise come to his knowledge, and who are conscientiously scrupulous within his district, one of which he shall retain and the other deliver on or before the last day of December in each year to the collector of fines of the division, and the said collector shall call on every person who shall be exempt from the performance of militia duty and also from payment of the fines imposed by this law; Provided, each and every such person shall produce to the said collector a certificate of the clergyman, or other person authorized to give the same, of the congregation to which he belongs, that he is conscientiously scrupulous as aforesaid, and shall also produce a certificate showing the payment of the sum of seven dollars to the use of either of the dispensaries of Baltimore, or shall pay to said collector the sum of five dollars for each and every year; and if any officer shall neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this section as required of him, he shall be fined a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

729. If any officer, non-commissioned officer, private or musician shall think himself injured by the commanding officer of his regiment, and shall upon the application made to his com-