

October shall be brigade parades, and shall take place at one o'clock, P. M., and the parades on the twelfth of September shall be division parades, and shall take place at eight o'clock, A. M.

760. The commanding officer of each regiment in said divisions shall, between the first and tenth days of March in each year, in regimental orders to be published in at least three daily newspapers, give notice of the time and place of parade as appointed by law, and designated in division orders, and also, of the place at which the court of appeal for his regiment shall meet, on the second Monday after each parade, at three o'clock, P. M.

761. There shall in said divisions be adopted the system of tactics and discipline now practised in the army of the United States; the companies of cavalry, artillery and infantry, shall be officered in like manner as those of the army of the United States of the corresponding arms, and to each company of riflemen shall be attached one captain and three lieutenants; each company shall adopt such uniform as they may agree upon, and all officers except those of uniform companies and field and staff officers of the first regiment of riflemen, shall adopt the uniform prescribed for the officers of the United States army of corresponding grade and arm of service, except that for the letters U. S., where used by the officers of the United States army, there shall be substituted the letters M. M., to denote Maryland Militia.

762. All certificates of membership issued to uniformed and active members of a volunteer company as hereinbefore directed, shall specify that said member is a uniformed and active member, but every such company may receive honorary members, who, on payment of not less than five dollars in advance for the use of the company, shall be entitled to a certificate of honorary membership, to be issued in like manner and limited for the like period as the certificates of uniformed and active members; and the said honorary members shall, for the time limited in their certificates, be exempted from militia duty, only except that they shall be liable to duty in said company in case of invasion.

763. Any person who shall have been for seven successive years a uniformed and active member in one or more volunteer companies, shall thereafter be exempt from militia duty, except in case of invasion or insurrection.
