

advertisement, the estate of said intestate will be paid to the commissioners of public schools.

831. They shall, upon passing an order directing such payment, require from the treasurer of the board of commissioners of public schools, or any other officer who may be appointed by said board of commissioners, or the mayor and city council of said city, to receive such funds, a receipt and release to the administrator for the same.

832. The release shall contain an obligation that the said funds shall, by the board of commissioners of public schools, be applied to the use and support of the public schools of the city of Baltimore, and shall be recorded and preserved in said court as other records are.

833. If the estate of an intestate shall be paid to the board of commissioners of public schools under this law, and any legal representatives of the intestate of no remoter degrees among collaterals than brothers' or sisters' children, shall at any time appear and prove him, her or themselves to be such legal representatives, the board of commissioners of public schools who received such estate, or their successors if the same shall be in their hands or shall have been applied to the use of the public schools, shall restore the same to such legal representative or representatives out of the school fund under their direction.

834. Nothing contained in this law shall be construed to interfere with or affect the rights vested in the Charitable Marine Society of Baltimore.

SEWERS.

835. The mayor and city council have full power to pave and keep in repair all necessary drains and sewers, to pass all regulations necessary for the preservation of the same, and to authorize any person by them appointed for that purpose to enter upon the lots, grounds, and possessions of any person or body politic through which the common sewers run, or ought to run, to regulate, make or repair the same.

836. If any person shall wilfully stop up or obstruct the passage of the waters of any of the common sewers, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars.
