

123. No toll shall be charged to any person passing or re-passing from one part of his farm to another, or to or from mill, or to or from any place of public worship, funeral, militia training, elections, or to any student or child going to or returning from school, or to persons going to and returning from courts; nor shall any toll be charged or collected for the passage of any wagon or carriage, laden with the property of the United States, or any cannon or military stores belonging to the United States, or to any of the States composing this Union.

124. If any person subject to the payment of tolls, shall pass through any private gate or bars or along or over any private way, or other ground, near to or adjoining any toll-gate, or over any other ground, with the intent to evade the payment of toll for passing such gate, or practise any other fraudulent device, or misrepresent the distance used or travelled, with the intent that the payment of such toll may be evaded or lessened, he shall for every offence forfeit the sum of five dollars.

125. The tolls upon that part of the road lying between Frostburg and Cumberland, shall be reduced one-third from the rates charged upon wagons, carts, or other vehicles not laden with coal.

126. The owners of every passenger or mail coach or stage, passing the gates on said road, shall pay the sum of four cents for every passenger carried in the same, for every space of ten miles on the road, and so in proportion for every greater or less distance, which shall be taken and received in lieu of all other toll on said coach or stage.

127. The proprietors of such coaches or stages, or their agents, shall, on the first Monday of every month, furnish on oath to the superintendent a list of the passengers transported over said road in their respective coaches for the month next preceding, and upon their failure to do so, the gate keeper at gate number one shall demand and collect from the proprietor so failing one dollar for each stage or coach passing over said road its entire length.

128. The superintendent shall sue the proprietors of any stage or coach refusing to pay the toll prescribed in section 126 of this
