

such list fifty cents for each night he may be certified therein to have served.

47. Any three creditable inhabitants of Calvert county may make oath before the Circuit Court, or the judge thereof in vacation, that they verily suspect or believe that ——, a person having a license to sell or trade in said county, deals unlawfully with negroes, or is in the habit of receiving stolen goods; and upon the receipt of such oath by the court, or judge in vacation, he shall order a summons to issue, returnable upon a certain day, for the person charged to appear and answer the charges.

48. Upon the return day of the summons, if the party shall be returned "summoned," or the summons shall have been left ten days at his place of abode, the judge or court shall examine the case, and if satisfied that the person charged is generally reputed to deal with negroes contrary to law, or to receive stolen goods, or if the court or judge shall have good reason to believe that such person deals or receives goods in the manner aforesaid, the court or judge may take away and annul the license of such person.

49. No trader, whose license may be suspended under the last foregoing section, shall be competent to trade or sell in Calvert county under the license of any other person obtained for his use, nor shall he have a license granted to him at any time thereafter.

ORPHANS' COURT.

50. The compensation of each judge of the Orphans' Court shall be two dollars for each day's attendance; and if he reside one mile or more from the county town he shall receive in addition to his per diem, mileage at the rate of six and a quarter cents per mile for the distance necessarily travelled from his residence to the county town on each day's attendance.

OUT-PENSIONS.

51. The county commissioners of Calvert county may keep as many out-pensioners and allow them such pensions as they may think proper, not exceeding twenty dollars in any one case, except in cases of extreme poverty and distress and inability to labor, when they may in their discretion allow a pension of forty dollars.