

REGISTER OF WILLS.

52. The register of wills of Calvert county shall be entitled to forty dollars a year for his services as clerk to the Orphans' Court of said county, acting as commissioners of the school fund, to be paid by the said court out of the school fund.

ROADS.

53. Each supervisor of roads in Calvert county shall, whenever it is necessary, call upon all persons residing in the district of which he is supervisor for hands, ploughs, carts, and horses, giving notice at least one week in advance of the day on which the same will be wanted, and the place.

54. No supervisor shall work upon any road with less than six nor more than twelve hands, and each supervisor shall give a certificate for the amount due each laborer who may have been employed whenever he shall be required to do so, and shall make returns semi-annually, under oath, to the county commissioners, in writing, of the number of hands employed on each particular day, specifying the sex and age, if slaves, and to whom belonging, and the number of horses, ploughs, and carts, and to whom the same belong.

55. The county commissioners shall give to each person named in such certificate, or the master of any slave therein named, a certificate for such amount as may appear from the returns and certificates of the supervisors to be due to him, and the collector shall receive such certificate in payment of the county taxes of the holder.

56. The county commissioners for said county may authorize the supervisors to contract for any wood, timber or other material necessary to keep the roads in repair.

57. The following sums shall be allowed and paid by the supervisors of roads in Calvert county for work and labor upon the said roads, to wit: for each good male hand above the age of fourteen years, the sum of seventy-five cents per day; for each good female hand above the age of fifteen years, fifty cents per day; for each two horse plough, one dollar per day; for each cart and team, one dollar and fifty cents per day.
