

as shall be found, with the cost of proceeding, to be paid by the State.

134. Where an infant shall appear by the certificate of the freeholders, or otherwise, to be interested in such land or materials, the court shall, with or without an application to that effect, have the appraisement reviewed by a jury as aforesaid, and shall confirm the final verdict as directed in the preceding section.

135. The superintendent may contract with the owner of any lands adjoining or near to any gate, for the right or permission to construct or interpose any obstructions that may be found necessary to secure the gates on said road against evasion, and may pay a reasonable sum for such privileges, or grant therefor the use of said road free of toll to the owner or occupant of such land.

136. The county commissioners of Allegany county shall annually appoint three inspectors to examine said road as often as they may deem necessary, for the purpose of ascertaining what improvements may be introduced in the repair and preservation thereof, and which, as far as practicable, shall be adopted by said superintendent, and the inspectors shall make a report to the county commissioners upon the condition of the road, at their last annual meeting.

137. The said inspectors shall also, under oath, inspect and audit the accounts of the superintendent, and shall be entitled to two dollars a day each for each day they shall be engaged in making such audit.

138. The superintendent shall report regularly to the said county commissioners, at each of their stated meetings, a full statement of the condition of said road, the amount of tolls received and the amount expended on account of said road, and what balance, if any, in hand; and the commissioners shall transmit said report immediately to the Comptroller, to be submitted by him to the General Assembly.

139. The superintendent shall also, semi-annually, publish in one or more newspapers, printed in the city of Cumberland, an abstract of receipts and expenditures on said road, and the
