

65*. The said trustees shall, in any district where there is no school house, select some suitable and central site, receive the same by purchase, gift or condemnation, and make arrangements for the erection and furnishing of a school house thereon, receive contributions from the benevolent, employ teachers, and require the teachers to keep diaries of the attendance, lists of the names of the scholars, and report the same to the board of commissioners, together with the number of months the schools have been kept open, but in no case shall expend more than one hundred and thirty dollars in the erection of any school house, inclusive of the cost of purchase or condemnation of a site therefor.

66*. If at any time the pupils in any school shall become so few in number as to warrant in the judgment of the commissioners a diminution or suspension of the donation thereto, the board of commissioners may either diminish or suspend said donation, due notice of which shall be given to the trustees of such school three months preceding such diminution or suspension.

67*. The trustees of each school district shall not employ as teacher any person who shall not furnish from at least one of the board of commissioners a certificate that he is a person capable of instructing thoroughly in the elementary branches of an English education, which shall be the standard of qualification of teachers, and that said person is of good moral character, and they shall report at the end of each year to the Board of School Commissioners whether the teachers in their respective employment have performed the duties of teacher and fully made the time required by law to be made as a scholastic year, which time shall be ten months, unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable circumstances.

68*. The school commissioners shall receive as adequate compensation for their services not exceeding two dollars per day, for each day they may be engaged in the discharge of their duties.

69*. The privileges of the schools shall be alike the property of all citizens of said county, and no special favor shall be granted to any person on any account whatever, and the schools shall be free to all alike.