ALMS-HOUSE.

SECTION 1. The county commissioners of Caroline county, in the month of April in each year, shall appoint five persons inhabitants of said county to be trustees of the poor of Caroline county.

2. In case of death, resignation, refusal to act, removal out of the county, or disqualification of any of the said trustees, the vacancy shall be filled by the county commissioners, if in session; if not, the trustees shall fill the vacancy until the meeting of the county commissioners.

3. Each trustee shall be allowed one dollar for each day he may attend at the alms-house, and the same mileage as jurors are allowed.

4. Each trustee upon entering upon the duties of his office shall take the following oath: "I, A, B., do swear that I will duly and faithfully discharge the duties and trusts committed to me as trustee of the poor of Caroline county, so help me God."

5. The said oath shall be administered by the trustee first named in the appointment, that may be present, to all the rest, any one of whom being sworn shall administer the said oath to him.

6. The trustees so appointed and qualified are vested with full power as a body politic, to sue and be sued, by the name of "The
