

92. Any justice of the peace of the said county may issue his warrant, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, against any person offending against any of the provisions of the last two preceding sections, and upon proof of his guilt shall fine him not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, and shall also adjudge and condemn as forfeited the boat or vessel in the possession of the offending party, together with the seine used in violation of said sections, and all the furniture, tackle and apparel, and all things on board at the time of the seizure, and shall direct the sheriff or constable to sell the same to the highest bidder for cash after ten days' notice at two of the most public places in the neighborhood.

93. After the payment of the costs of prosecuting the offending party, the proceeds of the fine and sale of the boat and other articles condemned shall be apportioned in the following manner: one-fourth to the sheriff or constable making the arrest and seizure, and the residue amongst those whom he may have summoned, and who have aided in the same, to be determined and awarded by the justice of the peace.

94. Any person aggrieved by any judgment rendered against him by any justice under this law, may appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court of Caroline county, within the same time and upon the same terms prescribed for appeals from judgments of justices of the peace in other cases.

95. If any free person shall whip or beat the water in Great Choptank River with poles or sticks, or other things, for the purpose of driving the fish in that part of the river between the Stock Landing and Blade's Overgoing, during the months of March, April and May, in any year, he shall forfeit and pay for each offence the sum of sixty dollars, to be recovered by action of debt or bill of indictment, either in the county where the offence was committed or where the person offending shall reside, one-half to the informer or person suing for the same, the other half to the use of the county in which he shall be convicted.

96. If any slave shall whip or beat the water in said river as aforesaid, on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, he shall be punished by whipping on his back, in the discretion of the justice, not exceeding ten lashes; but the master of said slave or any other person may redeem him by the payment of
