

sects with Tillotson's farm fence, thence east with said fence until it intersects with the first line of the property now or formerly belonging to the heirs of the late John See, thence north one hundred and eighty feet or the depth of said line north, thence east on a straight line until it extends to the east corner of the lot of land now or formerly belonging to the heirs of the late Thomas J. Gadd, thence south until it intersects again with Tillotson's farm fence, thence east up to the corner of said line, thence south until it intersects with the back line of the Kennedy lot, thence in a southwesterly direction and with the southern boundaries of all the lots to the Neck road, thence southward with said road to the corner of the fence now or formerly the fence of Doctor John H. Holt's first field, thence westwardly on a direct line with the southern boundary of all the lots to the creek, and thence with the meanderings of Tuckahoe Creek to the foot of the aforesaid bridge.

116. The free white male citizens of Hillsborough above the age of twenty-one years, who have resided in said town for three months, and twelve months in this State, shall, on the first Saturday in April in each year, at the Academy in said town, or at such other place therein as shall be appointed by the commissioners, elect five judicious and discreet persons commissioners of said town.

117. The acting president of the board of commissioners shall from time to time cause the clerk of the town to give public notice in writing of each election, at three conspicuous places, at least ten days preceding the election, and the said president shall be judge of said election, and shall open the polls at two o'clock, P.M., and close the same at six o'clock the same evening, and shall return his certificate of the persons elected to the said commissioners on the first day appointed for their meeting, and the same shall be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

118. No person shall be eligible to the office of commissioner in said town who shall not have resided twelve months in said town immediately previous to the election, and at the time conducting some business or having a family in said town.

119. If any commissioner shall die, resign, or remove from the said town, or be otherwise disqualified, during the year for which he was elected, the board of commissioners, or a majority of them, shall fill the vacancy.