

146. The county commissioners shall allow any constable who may have taken up and hired any slaves two dollars for each slave, but in no case shall the amount allowed any constable exceed two-thirds of the amount paid over to the commissioners.

147. Any constable who neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of this law, shall be subject to a fine of not more than ten nor less than three dollars, to be recovered by indictment in the Circuit Court.

148. No slave being a pilot, and hiring himself as such, shall be subject to the provisions of this law, nor shall other slaves be arrested thereunder during twenty days in harvest.

ORPHANS' COURT.

149. The judges of the Orphans' Court of Caroline county shall each receive two dollars a day for each day's attendance, and five cents a mile for every mile that his place of residence is distant from Denton, but such mileage shall not be computed for returning home.

150. They may appoint the crier of said court, who shall be entitled to one dollar and fifty cents a day for every day the Register of Wills shall certify he acted as such.

OUT-PENSIONS.

151. The county commissioners may annually levy a sum of money not exceeding four hundred dollars, to be by them apportioned among such poor persons applying therefor as the said court shall deem fit objects for out pensions.

ROADS.

152. The county commissioners of Caroline county shall annually levy upon the assessable property of the county such sum of money as they may ascertain from the supervisors of roads in the county to be probably necessary for the repair of roads therein.

153. Each supervisor shall call on the taxable persons of his district who are actually chargeable with taxes, and none other,