

174. If any change or amendment of the articles, conditions or provisions of the instrument on which said corporation is established, shall be made by authority of the corporation, such change or amendment shall be made known, acknowledged and recorded in the same manner as prescribed in section 172 of this article, and after said alterations or amendments shall be recorded, the same shall be deemed to be a part of the charter or instrument upon which such corporation was formed and established, to all intents and purposes as if the same had originally been made part thereof.

175. The usual fees, for equal or similar services, shall be received by the clerk for recording such article, and shall be paid by the parties respectively applying therefor, and after said the instrument of writing, or articles of association, or any amendments thereof, shall have been recorded, they shall be duly certified to be recorded, and be delivered over to the respective applicants.

176. No corporation formed or established under this article, shall be authorized to exercise banking privileges, or to issue any note, token, device, scrip or other evidence of debt, to be used as currency, nor shall any such corporation have the power of condemning lands for the tracks of such railroads as they may construct, or for any other purpose.

SCHOOLS.

177. The treasurer is authorized and directed to pay to the judges of the Orphans' Court of Caroline county, or to their order, on the first Monday of October in each year, all sums of money which may be due for and on account of the donations to schools and academies in said county.

178. The treasurer shall pay annually to the judges of the Orphans' Court of said county, or their order, all sums of money due to said county as its proportion of the several school funds.

179. All orders drawn by the judges of the Orphans' Court under the two preceding sections, shall be signed by the register of wills, and have the seal of his office thereto affixed.