

180. The Orphans' Court shall distribute the school funds equally among the several school districts of the county, so that each school district shall have an equal amount of said funds.

181*. The school districts in election districts number one and two shall remain as now established, and the trustees thereof hold and exercise the powers they have heretofore exercised, unless altered or changed as herein provided; and the judges of the Orphans' Court of said county are hereby authorized and required to appoint five suitable persons in and for the third election district of said county, as provided in section 182 of this article, who shall have all and singular the powers for establishing a public school in said third district in the part thereof known as Hunting Creek Neck as are now provided by law for the schools in other districts in said county.

182. The judges of the Orphans' Court are authorized and required to appoint five suitable persons in and for each election district of said county as commissioners of the free school fund of said county, for their respective districts, any three of whom shall constitute a board competent to the transaction of all the business and the exercise or performance of all the powers and duties devolved upon said district commissioners; and in the event of any vacancy occurring in any of the said boards of district commissioners, by death, resignation or removal from the district, or refusal to act, of any of said commissioners, or by their removal from office as hereinafter authorized, it shall be the duty of the Orphans' Court to appoint some suitable person to fill such vacancy; and the Orphans' Court may remove any commissioner for incompetency or misconduct.

183. In the distribution of said fund, it shall be the duty of the several commissioners diligently to inquire for and ascertain such orphans and poor children as are destitute of the means of education, and to select, from time to time, and as far as the funds under their control will enable them, such orphans and poor children as they may deem proper objects for education out of said fund; and it shall be their duty to give to those whom they may select an order for their reception and tuition at any school nearest or most convenient to such scholar, and such selection may be made, and orders for the reception of charity scholars given, either by the board of commissioners for the district, or any member thereof; and upon such order, accompanied with the accounts of any teacher, for the tuition
