

198. The Register of Wills shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of the school fund in a book to be kept for that purpose, and he shall also preserve the accounts, orders and reports of the commissioners and trustees, and shall be paid out of the school fund such sum for his services as the Orphans' Court may deem reasonable.

199. The Orphans' Court shall report to the General Assembly annually, during the month of January, the amount of money received from the treasurer as a school fund, and how the same has been disbursed, and showing the number of primary free schools in said county, and how many poor children have been educated out of the free school fund under the selection of the commissioners.

200*. The trustees of primary schools number one and four in election district number one in Caroline county are authorized and empowered to use and appropriate the charity school fund of said schools or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of building a new school house in each of said school districts.

SHERIFF.

201. The sheriff of Caroline county shall be allowed for keeping prisoners in jail and finding them in food, twenty cents per day, exclusive of firewood.

202. He shall be allowed fifty cents each time for ironing or unironing a prisoner, as often as it may be necessary to do so.

203. He may charge and receive from all officers and attorneys who may place fees in his hands for collection, a commission of eight per cent. on the amount collected.

WITNESSES.

204. Each witness summoned to attend the Circuit Court for Caroline county shall receive for each day's attendance the sum of sixty cents, and five cents for every mile that his place of residence is distant from Denton, such mileage to be computed for each day's attendance.
