

ALMS-HOUSE.

SECTION 1. The county commissioners of Carroll county shall employ the overseer of the alms-house.

2. They shall visit the alms-house at least once in every three months, either personally or by a committee of their number, to examine into the condition and affairs of the institution; shall levy upon the assessable property of the county for any actual or expected deficiency of means for its support, and do all other acts necessary to the proper conducting of the farm and alms-house.

3. They may, whenever they may deem it just and proper, require indigent persons who receive out-pensions to relinquish the same and repair to the alms-house.

4. They may grant out-pensions, when in their opinion it is right and proper.

5. They shall publish annually with their statement of the county expenditures, a statement of the financial condition of the alms-house.

BAILIFFS AND CRIER.

6. The county commissioners of said county shall pay the bailiffs and crier of the Circuit Court for said county, at its several sessions, the sums of money due to them for their respective services, immediately upon the presentation of the certificate of the clerk of said court, of their attendance and services.

CIRCUIT COURT.

7. The terms of the Circuit Court for Carroll county shall commence and be held at Westminster, on the first Monday in April, and the first Monday in September.

8. The judge of the Circuit Court, may in his discretion appoint intermediate terms for the transaction of equity or other business, not requiring a jury to which process may be returnable.