

48. They shall organize by the election of a president from among their number, and shall at the same time elect a secretary, with such compensation as they think proper.

49. They shall make such laws and regulations for the government of said corporation as they may deem proper, and may alter, amend and repeal the same at pleasure.

50. They shall each be entitled to two dollars per diem for each day they shall attend the meetings of said corporation, and five cents a mile for every mile each of them may travel, coming from their respective places of residence to the city of Westminster and in returning therefrom to their respective places of residence.

51. The regular meetings of the corporation shall be held quarterly, at the court house at Westminster, at such time as to them may seem most convenient; they may adjourn from day to day whenever the public business shall require it, and the president may call extra meetings whenever any business of importance may demand it.

52. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

53. In case of a vacancy in said board of commissioners, the Orphans' Court shall appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy until the next election of school commissioners.

54. The board of school commissioners shall revise the several school districts in the county, organize new ones without reference to election district lines, whenever in their judgment the public convenience may require it, and shall deliver a description of each district to the clerk of the Circuit Court of the county, who shall record the same, free of charge, in a suitable book provided for that purpose.

55. They shall also publish a description of each school district, in such manner as they think proper, and may number the same without reference to the election districts of the county.

56. They shall, if any school district shall lie partly in two or more election districts, designate to which it shall belong, in such description and notice.
