

57. They shall constitute a board of examiners, and it shall be their duty to examine all persons offering themselves as candidates for teaching in any of the school districts, and they may appoint a person or persons qualified to examine such candidates, and if they shall be satisfied, after due examination has been made, that the candidate is a person of good moral character and possessed of sufficient learning and ability, they shall deliver a certificate to the candidate of his qualification, to be used as hereinafter directed.

58. They shall annually renew such certificates, if no charges are preferred against the person applying therefor.

59. They shall prescribe the books to be used in the several primary schools in the county.

60. The legal voters of the several school districts shall assemble annually on the first Saturday in June, and elect from among the inhabitants three discreet persons, who shall constitute a board of trustees for said district, and shall serve for one year from the date of their election, or until their successors are qualified; the polls at such election shall not be opened before one o'clock, P.M., and shall be kept open until four o'clock, P.M., and the persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected.

61. The trustees so elected shall notify the legal voters of the district of the time and place of holding the next election, by putting up notices of the same in the most public places in the district, at least ten days previous to said election.

62. A majority of trustees of a district shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

63. In case of a vacancy in the board of trustees in any district, the remaining trustees shall fill the vacancy until the next election.

64. The clerk of elections at any election for trustees, shall notify the board of school commissioners of the election and names of the trustees.

65. The said trustees and their successors in office may sue and be sued, by the name of the "Trustees of Primary School