

by ordinance, and the said bonds shall be approved by the mayor.

118. The mayor and common council may pass all ordinances necessary to regulate or prevent swine going at large; to tax, regulate, restrain or prevent the going at large of dogs, and to provide for killing the same in default of payment of such tax.

119. They may pass all ordinances necessary for the good government and general police of the city, and enforce the observance of such ordinances by fines and penalties not exceeding twenty dollars for any one offence.

120. Any justice of the peace, resident in said city, upon complaint made before him of the violation of any ordinance of said corporation, shall issue process, in the name of the mayor and common council, to recover the fine or penalty imposed for the violation of such ordinance, against the party offending, and may hear and determine the matter as any case arising under the laws of the State, and shall receive the same fees therefor.

121. The justice may, in default of payment of any fine or penalty imposed by him for a violation of any ordinance of the said corporation, commit the party fined to the county jail for a period not exceeding ten days, and the sheriff of Carroll county shall receive and confine the party so committed, in the same manner as other prisoners, and shall be entitled to the same compensation therefor.

122. The mayor may remit any fine or penalty imposed under any ordinance of the mayor and common council.

NEW WINDSOR.

123. The citizens of the town of New Windsor, in Carroll county, are a body corporate, by the name of the burgess and commissioners of New Windsor, and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

124. The limits of said town shall include all front lots on both sides of the street, from the westerly part of the original plan of the town, together with the alleys on both sides running so far eastward as to correspond with the eastern line of the general