

CHARLESTOWN.

32. The citizens of Charlestown who are actual residents therein and qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly, shall, on the second Monday of January, annually, elect five commissioners, which said commissioners are hereby incorporated by the name of "The Commissioners of Charlestown," and the said commissioners are hereby enabled to sue and be sued, to have a public seal with such marks and devices as to them shall seem proper for the purpose of attesting official papers; and to make by-laws and regulations to preserve order, remove nuisances, and promote the welfare of said town, not contrary to the laws of this State.

33. Every commissioner at the time of his election shall be an actual resident of said town and qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly; if any vacancy occurs, the remaining commissioners shall fill such vacancy until the next general election.

34. The said commissioners shall meet at such times as they shall deem expedient, and may appoint a clerk to register their proceedings, and may also appoint a bailiff of said town, who shall, within the limits of said town and common, have all the powers and perform all the duties of constables of Cecil county.

35. All the public property belonging to said town shall be vested in said commissioners, who shall use the same for the benefit of said town, and may sell or lease the same with the consent of a majority of the voters of said town, and may impose fines not exceeding ten dollars for the violation of the by-laws, which fines shall be collected in the name of the said commissioners as small debts.

CHESAPEAKE CITY.

36. The citizens of Chesapeake City and Bohemia village, in Cecil county, are a body politic, by the name of "The President and Commissioners of the town of Chesapeake City," and as such shall have succession, and by their corporate name may sue and be sued, may grant, receive and do all other acts as natural persons, and may purchase and hold real and personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and
