

three hundred dollars, and also such fees for recording constables' and supervisors' bonds, and all other instruments of writing, as the clerk of the Circuit Court is allowed for similar services.

58. In case of a vacancy in the office of clerk to the county commissioners, they shall fill the same.

59. The county commissioners shall receive for their services the sum of three dollars per day for each day they shall be engaged in the duties of their office.

60. They shall annually levy such sums of money as they may deem necessary for the support of indigent poor whom they think should be out-pensioners, but in no case shall they levy more than thirty dollars a year for any one person; they shall levy in each year such sum as they shall ascertain, by a careful estimate, to be sufficient to pay all the current expenses of the county for the ensuing year, and shall apply the sum so levied first to the payment of State's witnesses and jurors and then to such other county expenses as they may deem proper.

ELECTIONS.

61*. Cecil county is divided into nine election districts, according to the present bounds and limits, except that the divisional line between election districts number three and number five shall be so run, beginning at a point on the said line where the road from Elkton to Turkey Point crosses Plumb Creek, it shall run in a straight line direct to the spot where the road from Elkton to North East crosses Mill Creek, and elections for all public offices shall be held in each of said districts at the place heretofore established by law for that purpose.

62*. The county commissioners are hereby authorized to appoint some competent person to run the line herein mentioned, and the same shall be completed on or before the first day of May next.

63. The judges and clerks of elections in Cecil county shall each be allowed for every election at which they may attend and act, and for making the returns thereof, the sum of three dollars per day.
