

70. The commissioners so elected may meet and adjourn from time to time as they may think proper, and shall, at their first meeting, which shall be within one month after their election, choose from their own body a president, who shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, vote on all questions before them, and remain in office until superseded by the appointment of a new president after a new election of commissioners.

71. The said president and commissioners shall have power to pass ordinances regulating the market, the inspection, measurement and weight of all provisions, grain and wood sold in said town; to suppress all disorderly meetings of negroes and others; to prevent firing cannon, guns, squibs, or any kind of firearms or fireworks, in said town; to suppress and abate all nuisances; to prevent swine and geese from going at large; to prevent any immoderate driving through the streets with carriage, stage, cart, wagon or other vehicle, or on horseback, so as to endanger the lives, limbs or property of the citizens of said town or disturb the quiet enjoyment of the streets and thoroughfares; and to prevent the parading and indecent exhibition of any stud horse through the streets; and may impose fines, not exceeding ten dollars for any offence, on any person violating said ordinances.

72. They may provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person violating any town ordinance by driving through the streets, when in the judgment of the president or any two of said commissioners the delay necessary to the issuing of a warrant would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or the lives, limbs and property of its citizens, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, so as to render it unsafe to permit him to drive through the streets, shall provide for the removal of the horse and vehicle without the limits of the town, or for the deposit thereof in some place of safety until the offender shall be sober.

73. They shall have power to determine and establish the limits of said town, and extend the same if they deem it expedient, and they shall file with the clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil county a description of the boundaries by them established, which shall be deemed a record of the boundaries of the town.

74. They shall have power to establish the limits and width of the streets of said town, and to remove obstructions therefrom,
