

LUMBER INSPECTORS.

101. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall biennially appoint fifteen measurers, markers and inspectors of lumber and shingles for the village of Port Deposit, and two for the village of Perryville, and one for the town of Chesapeake City.

102. The persons so appointed shall be residents of the State of Maryland, and shall each be entitled to appoint one deputy, who shall also be residents of the said State.

103. The said inspectors shall in their inspections be governed by the laws, rules and regulations prescribed for the inspection of such lumber in the city of Baltimore.

104. They shall be entitled to demand and receive twenty-five cents for measuring, marking, or inspecting every thousand feet of lumber, reduced measure, and twelve and a half cents for every thousand shingles, one-half to be paid by the purchaser and the other half by the seller.

105. Whenever any person may want his lumber or shingles measured, marked and inspected, he shall notify one of the measurers, markers and inspectors, who shall immediately proceed to measure, mark and inspect the same.

106. No person shall be compelled to have his lumber measured, marked and inspected, but any person desiring it shall have it done by the duly appointed inspectors or their deputies, and no other person.

107. The measurers, markers and inspectors for Port Deposit, and their deputies, shall have jurisdiction and may measure, mark and inspect lumber and shingles in the waters of the Susquehanna River, opposite said town, and as far down as Herring Run.

108. The limits of the town of Perryville, for the purpose of such inspection, shall extend from the north side of the railroad depôt along the Susquehanna River to a tract of land called Rich Hill.
