

109. If any person shall measure, mark or inspect any lumber or shingles in either of said towns, or on the waters of the Susquehanna River within the limits and jurisdiction prescribed in the two last foregoing sections, without being appointed by the Governor, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for each offence, to be recovered in the name of the State, before any justice of the peace for Cecil county, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the State, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person from counting his own lumber and putting the number of feet thereon.

110. No inspector or his deputy shall be allowed to purchase and sell, or act as agent to purchase and sell, any lumber or shingles, directly or indirectly, except for his own private use and immediate consumption, and any inspector or deputy so offending shall forfeit and pay for each offence twenty dollars, to be recovered in the name of the State, before any justice of the peace for Cecil county, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the State.

111. The said inspectors shall not inspect lumber in Harford county, and any inspector so offending shall forfeit five dollars for each pile of lumber or timber so inspected, to be recovered before a justice of the peace for Harford county, one-half to the State and the other half to the informer.
