

the president and commissioners for the time being shall continue in office until such election shall be held.

146. The limits of said village shall commence on the Susquehanna River, at the mouth of Rock Run, and extend a quarter of a mile in an easterly direction up the said run, then in a parallel line with the river until it strikes a run called Cully's Run, then down the said run until it strikes the river, and then by and with the said river to the place of beginning.

147. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, may appoint a clerk and prescribe his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper.

148. All ordinances passed by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be entered by the clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be open at all times for inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be set up in the most public places of said village, that the same may be generally made known.

149. The said commissioners shall have power to determine upon and regulate all matters relating to the building of wharves in said village, and to regulate the mooring of rafts, arks and boats on the waters of the Susquehanna River, in front of said village.

150. The proprietors of lots binding on and entitled to the privileges of the waters in said village, may, subject to the rules, regulations and ordinances of said commissioners, wharf out, extend and improve the whole front of their lots for such distance as from time to time they shall think proper, and they shall be entitled exclusively to such emoluments arising from the wharfage thereof, as may be fixed upon by the said commissioners; but nothing contained in this or the preceding section shall prevent the owner of any wharf erected in said village from having the exclusive right to use, occupy and enjoy the same at pleasure.

151. The said commissioners may pass all by-laws and ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to all the powers vested in the said corporation, and to impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach thereof; but no ordinance of said com-
