

162. The said president and commissioners may, on application of any person holding a lot or lots in said village, have the same surveyed, and the lines thereof established, by a committee of three of their own body, who, or any two of them, may employ a surveyor for the purpose, and the expenses thereof shall be charged in fair proportion upon the holders of the lots surveyed, and may be collected as other small debts.

163. The person making such survey shall establish permanent boundaries of the lots surveyed, and a certificate of the survey and bounds thereof shall be returned by the surveyor, attested by two or more commissioners, and recorded among the office papers of said commissioners, and a certified copy thereof shall be evidence of the lines of said lots.

164. All taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by the said commissioners, by virtue of any law or ordinance, shall be applied for the use of the said village, as may from time to time by ordinance be directed.

RISING SUN.

165*. The citizens of the village of Rising Sun, in Cecil county, Maryland, are a body politic by the name of "The Commissioners of Rising Sun," with all the privileges of a body corporate, and as such shall have succession, and by their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, grant, receive and do all other acts as natural persons, and may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said village, and have and use a common seal, which they may change at pleasure.

166*. The free male white citizens of said village of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, being citizens of the United States, who shall have resided in said village for and during the space of six months preceding, may on the second Monday in May in each and every year, at the usual place of holding elections in said village, be authorized to elect five commissioners for said town, who shall have resided within the corporate limits of the same one year next preceding the election.

167*. The said commissioners shall, on the first meeting after said election, choose one from among their number who shall be president of the board, whose duty it shall be to preside at the meetings of said commissioners and preserve decorum, and give
