

such directions as may be deemed necessary by said commissioners to carry into effect the provisions of this charter.

168*. The aforesaid commissioners, or a majority thereof, may meet together, at such times as occasion may seem to require, upon the business of said village, and not less than once in every three months; and if during the year for which they are elected, any of said commissioners shall die, resign, remove from said village, or from any cause be disqualified, an election to fill the vacancy, on ten days' notice being given by the commissioners, shall be held, at which all persons qualified as is herein specified shall be entitled to vote.

169*. The aforesaid commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint a clerk and assign his duties, allowing him such compensation for his services as they shall think proper; and all ordinances passed by said commissioners, or a majority, shall by their clerk be entered in a book kept by him for that purpose, and shall be at all times open for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places of said village.

170*. All fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of the said corporation may be recovered, as small debts are recoverable, before any justice of the peace.

171*. The corporate bounds of said village shall be as follows: beginning at the west corner of the Rising Sun school house lot, and running thence 85° east 92 perches, thence south $72\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ east 83.72 perches, thence south $42\frac{1}{2}$ degrees west 167.76 perches, thence north 190° west 17.24 perches, thence north $85\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ west 60.36 perches, thence north 47.2 perches, thence north 6° east 75.44 perches to place of beginning; and the property within said limits shall be subject to such taxes and assessments as may be deemed necessary by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, to support and maintain the expenses that may be incurred in the improvements of said town.

172*. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power to make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws and Constitution of this State, as they may from time to time deem wise, equitable and expedient for the health, convenience and prosperity of the said village and its inhabitants, and for the prevention and re-
