

board shall determine the manner in which pupils shall be admitted, and shall prescribe the course of instruction.

204. It shall be the duty of the board of school commissioners of Cecil county to publish annually a full and complete statement of the condition of the schools under their charge, the salaries of teachers, number of pupils of each school and school district, cost of books and stationery, with general and particular expenses of the system, and such other matters as may be of public interest in connection with said schools.

205. The members of the board of public schools of Cecil county, shall receive as compensation for their services not more than two dollars a day for every day that they may be occupied in attending the meetings of the board, and the same compensation shall be allowed to committees of the board when in attendance upon such duties as the board may assign them.

206. The county commissioners of Cecil county shall have power, whenever in their discretion they shall deem it proper, to appoint one sensible and discreet person in each election district of Cecil county, who shall constitute a board for the purpose of dividing the county into school districts, and said board shall make such division without reference to the boundaries of election districts, and shall report said division to the commissioners of public schools of Cecil county as soon as practicable, who shall have power to alter or change any lines for good and sufficient reasons, and after said division shall have been confirmed by said board, the plat shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose.

207. The present school fund of Cecil county, and all other funds which may be by any law of this State applicable to purposes of education in said county, except the funds appropriated to the Elkton and West Nottingham academies, shall be paid directly to the treasurer of the board of commissioners of public schools, and the balance necessary for the support of the schools shall be annually estimated and determined by said board of commissioners of public schools, who shall report the same to the county commissioners, who shall levy annually the sum so estimated and reported upon the assessable property of Cecil county, to be collected in the same manner as other taxes; and the said school tax when collected shall be paid over to the trea-