

less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, recoverable by action at the suit of the party injured.

SCHOOLS.

110. There shall be five school commissioners for Charles county, and the Orphans' Court of said county shall fill all vacancies that may occur in the said board.

111. The said commissioners shall elect their own president and make all such by-laws and regulations as they may deem necessary for their government.

112. They shall meet quarterly at the court-house in Port Tobacco, and the president may call extra meetings whenever, in his judgment, the business of the board requires it.

113. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

114. They shall annually appoint a treasurer and a register.

115. The duties of the treasurer shall be to receive and disburse all sums of money receivable and applicable to the primary schools of Charles county, under the direction of the board of school commissioners.

116. The duties of the register shall be to register in a book kept for that purpose, all such matters as the board of school commissioners shall direct.

117. The school commissioners shall divide the county into as many school districts as they deem necessary for public convenience; shall number and clearly define each, and from time to time create new ones as necessity may require.

118. They may sell and dispose of any school house that it may become necessary to sell from the formation of new districts, and appropriate the money to the school fund of the county.

119. They shall every two years appoint in each school district five suitable men as trustees for such school district, who shall be notified of their appointment as early as practicable thereafter,