

peace and four constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number four, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number five, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number six, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number seven, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number eight, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number nine, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number ten, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number eleven, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number twelve, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number thirteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fourteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fifteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number sixteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; and for election district number seventeen, two justices of the peace and two constables.

LIBERTY.

188. No person shall ride, drive, or lead any horse, or drive any team, carriage or other vehicle whatever, upon any pavement on the sidewalks, in the village of Liberty, in Frederick county; and any person so offending shall forfeit and pay, for every offence, the sum of two dollars, to be recovered in the name of the State, before any justice of the peace, as other small debts, and appropriated to the improvement of the sidewalks in said village.

189. Any constable of the election district in which such village is situated, in whose view any offence against the preceding section is committed, shall give information thereof, on oath, to some justice of the peace for said county, unless the offender pay said fine to the constable, who is hereby authorized to receive it.

190. Any justice of the peace, upon oath made by a constable, or other creditable person, that an offence has been committed against the provisions of section 188 of this article, shall issue his warrant against the offender, directed to some constable of