

the district, who shall arrest and carry such offender before some justice of the peace for the county, to answer said information and complaint, and the justice before whom he may be taken, upon proof of the commission of such offence by such person, shall give judgment for fine and costs, upon which judgment there shall be no supersedeas, and the justice and constables shall be entitled to the same fees as in other civil cases.

191. The several constables who may collect any fines imposed for riding or driving on the side-walks of said village, shall pay the same, within thirty days after the receipt thereof, to the superintendents of Liberty, and upon refusal or neglect of any constable so to do, the said superintendents may recover the same, in the name of the State, before any justice of the peace for said county, as small debts.

192. No person shall, by any thing contained in the 188th section of this article, be prohibited or prevented from passing across said foot-walks, on going from or returning to his own premises.

MECHANICSTOWN.

193. The citizens of Mechanicstown, in Frederick county, are a body corporate, by the name of the burgess and commissioners of Mechanicstown, and by that name may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

194. The limits of said town, for all purposes except taxation, by the laws of the corporation, shall be as follows:—Commencing at Nathaniel Eylir's dwelling house, on the west end of the town, including said house, thence in a straight line in a south-easterly direction to Adam Ridinour's dwelling house, including said house, thence in a straight line in a southerly direction to W. P. Jones' factory, including said factory and all buildings attached thereto, thence in a straight line due east to Weller's Run, thence a straight line in a north-easterly direction to Henry Funderburg's barn; including said barn, thence a straight line in a north-westerly direction to Weller's Run, at its intersection with the Emmitsburg road, thence a straight line in a westerly direction, to the new stone church, including said church and all lots attached thereto, thence a straight line to the place of beginning; and the taxable limits of the said town shall include all that part of the town now improved, or which the citizens may at any time hereafter improve, these being the limits fixed by the original
