

vided process be served on the defendant, at least ten days before the beginning of the term, unless good cause of continuance be shown; and the defendant shall not be entitled to any stay of execution upon such judgment, but may supersede the same within sixty days after its rendition, for six months, to be computed from the date of the judgment.

297. The inspectors of primary schools shall, on or before the first day of July, in each year, make and transmit a report to the General Assembly of Maryland, embodying the same matters that shall be contained in the report of the trustees of the several school districts to them, as hereinbefore directed.

298. Each inspector of primary schools shall receive the sum of two dollars per diem, whilst in the discharge of his duties, to be paid out of the school fund.

299. The citizens of Woodville district in said county, qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, may elect the teacher in said primary school district, having given ten days' notice of the election, by putting up notices at three of the most public places in the district, ten days previous to the election.

300. No person shall be eligible as teacher at such election, unless he has a certificate from the board of inspectors, that he is competent to teach all the branches to be taught in the primary schools in said county.

301. Free schools are established in the city of Frederick, under the care of superintendents; and in case of the resignation or refusal to serve of any superintendent, the aldermen and common council of Frederick shall fill the vacancy at their first meeting thereafter.

302. Seven of said superintendents shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

303. The superintendents have power to make all necessary rules and regulations for the government of the schools, and shall purchase books, stationery and fuel, provide school houses, visit and examine into the condition of the schools at least once in every three months, dismiss any teacher for incompetency, improper conduct, or other satisfactory cause, and appoint a successor; pay the salaries of teachers, and all incidental expenses,