

register, of the number of pupils in St. John's benevolent school, together with the amount of money paid for their education, and make an estimate of the probable expenses which may be incurred therein for the next ensuing year.

309. St. John's benevolent school, in said city, shall be entitled to one-half of the portion of the school fund of the county apportioned to the city of Frederick; and the apportionment to said city shall be based upon the relative population of the said city to the whole county; and the superintendents of free schools, in making an estimate of the amount to be paid by them, under the preceding section, for the use of St. John's benevolent school, shall include the sum to which the said school is entitled under this section.

SHERIFF.

310. The sheriff of Frederick county shall be entitled to twenty-five cents per day for boarding each prisoner committed to the county jail.

311. He shall, when under the judgment of the Circuit Court he shall be ordered to sell any negro beyond the limits of the State of Maryland, be entitled to retain, out of the proceeds of the sale, ten dollars as a compensation for all services, &c., rendered.

312. The sheriff of Frederick county shall execute the sentence of death upon any convict, upon the receipt of the death warrant from the Governor, at the time fixed in said warrant, in the enclosed yard of the jail of said county, in the presence of not less than twenty persons, whom the sheriff may summon to be present at such execution; and, on failure so to do, he shall forfeit the sum of three hundred dollars, for the use of the inspectors of primary schools in said county.

SWINE AND GEESE.

313. No geese or swine, belonging to any inhabitant of Creagerstown, in Frederick county, shall be suffered to go at large in said town; and if any person shall find any geese or swine going at large in said town, he may kill the same.

314. Any person may kill any swine or poultry going at large in the town of New Market, in said county.
