

ARTICLE XII.

Hartford County.

CONTENTS.

ALMS-HOUSE—		APPRENTICES—	SEC.
County commissioners to act as trustees of.....	1	If rejected, court to bind.....	85
to make rules for government of.....	2	Parent may select master.....	86
Inmates, how admitted.....	3	Free negro not to have custody of apprentice.....	87
Overseer, appointment, and duties of.....	4	Penalty for permitting.....	87
to give bond.....	5	Pay of justices binding, and by whom paid.....	88
may be removed at pleasure pay of.....	7	Penalty on constable neglecting duty.....	89
Accounts of receipts and expenses, how kept and published.....	8	ATTORNEY, STATE'S—
List of inmates to be kept.....	9	Pay of, in removed cases.....	137
Omission to keep and publish account, a misdemeanor.....	10	BAILIFFS—
Overseer to account with commissioners.....	12	Pay of, and when and upon what evidence payable.....	21, 22
to compel inmates to work	11	when to be levied.....	34
Commissioners to inspect almshouse.....	13	CIRCUIT COURT—
No commissioner to furnish supplies.....	14	Terms of.....	23
Justice may commit disorderly persons to.....	15	Jury to be summoned to each term	24
may commit vagrants.....	17	COLLECTORS—
Commissioner may direct inmates to be punished.....	16	Bonds of, to be a lien on lands of	25
Penalty for dealing with inmates	18	Power to collect county taxes.....	26
Officers to assist trustees.....	19	CONSTABLES—
Person sued may plead generally	20	Number of.....	79
APPRENTICES—		COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—
Constables or justices to notify parents or persons having custody of negro children to bind as.....	82	Number of.....	27
On failure, constable to take child before justices.....	83	Pay of.....	28
Justices to bind.....	83	Appointment and bond of clerk to.....	29, 30
Justice may issue warrant for child, and when.....	84	Pay of clerk.....	31
Indentures to be confirmed by Orphans' Court.....	85	Vacancy, how filled.....	32
		Office hours.....	33
		Levy for bailiffs, jurors and crier, when to be made.....	34
		CRIER—
		Pay of, and when payable and upon what evidence.....	35