

33. He shall give his personal attendance at the court-house during the hours of business every Tuesday, unless prevented by sickness or other circumstance beyond his control, and in case of failure, his office shall be deemed vacated, and the county commissioners, at their next meeting thereafter, shall appoint some other person in his place.

34. They shall levy annually such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be annually incurred by the attendance of jurors, bailiffs, and crier in the Circuit Court for said county.

CRIER.

35. The crier of the Circuit Court for Harford county, in addition to his fees, shall be allowed one dollar and fifty cents a day for each day he shall attend said court, and the same shall be levied and paid in the same manner and upon the same evidence as the allowance to bailiffs.

ELECTIONS.

36. Harford county is divided into six election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and elections for all public offices shall be held in each of said districts at the place therein heretofore established by law for that purpose.

37. The judges and clerks of elections in Harford county shall each be allowed three dollars a day for each day they act as such.

FISH.

38. The county commissioners of Harford county shall appoint annually a constable in the district adjoining the Bald Friar ferry, on the Susquehanna River, whose duty it shall be to examine every fish pot erected in the river, at least once a week in the season the young shad usually descend the river, and if they find any fish nets erected in the river within the limits of Harford county, not constructed so as to admit the free passage of young shad, or with the bottom thereof covered with a basket or any other device, so as to close the opening therein whereby the young shad may be destroyed, they shall give notice thereof to any justice of the peace of the county, who shall upon such information of said constable, or of any other person on oath,
