has been guilty of such violation, the said judge shall have full power immediately to suppress the license of such person, and no new license shall be granted to him or her.

58. Any one order which may be given to any minor, free negro, or any negro slave under the provisions of the 55th section of this article, shall not be available for the purpose for which it was given for a longer period than two days from its date.

59. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of Anne Arundel county and his deputies, and of the constables of the city of Annapolis, to exercise proper vigilance in order to detect all violations of this article, in relation to the sale of liquors to minors and negroes, and report immediately any such violations to the judge of said court.

60. All fines imposed and collected under the provisions of section 55 of this article, shall go one-half to the informer, and the other half to the State.

61. The mayor, recorder and each alderman shall, in virtue of their office, have and exercise within the limits of the corporation all the jurisdiction and powers of a justice of the peace.

62. The mayor may call on any officer of the city intrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public money for a statement of his accounts as often as he may deem it necessary; he shall see that the ordinances are duly and faithfully executed, and shall report annually to the corporation during the first five days of their session, the general state of the city, with an accurate account of the money received and expended, to be published for the information of the citizens.

63. The mayor may take the acknowledgment of any deed or instrument of writing required by law to be acknowledged, and shall receive therefor the sum of fifty cents.

64. The collector of taxes in said city shall have the same power to collect the city taxes as the collectors of county taxes, and shall be governed by the same rules.

65. When any tax shall be due upon real estate, and no personal property shall be found thereon liable to the payment