

88. The compensation to each justice of the peace, and to the constable, for binding out any free negro child under this article, shall be two dollars, to be paid by the master.

89. Any constable or justice of the peace who shall fail to perform the duties imposed upon him in this article in relation to the binding out of free negro children, shall be liable to indictment, and upon conviction shall be removed from office, and may be fined as for a misdemeanor.

NOTICES.

90*. All notices concerning the opening, altering, locating or widening any public road, all reports of the school commissioners that are required to be published, all lists of county expenses and levies and notices or other papers issuing from the county commissioners required by law to be published, shall be published in but two newspapers printed in the county, and shall be published in one of each party, if there be a newspaper of each party.

ORPHANS' COURT.

91. The judges of the Orphans' Court for Harford county shall meet at the six terms hereafter mentioned, and at no other times, to wit: The first Monday in the months of February, April, June, August, October and December, respectively, to which terms all process shall be made returnable.

92. They may at each term adjourn from day to day, if the public business require it, for a period not exceeding four days at any one time.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

93. The Register of Wills for Harford county, during the recess of the Orphans' Court, shall have full power and jurisdiction to do all matters and things whatsoever which the said Orphans' Court could do at its regular sessions, and there shall be the same right of appeal from any order, decree or judgment of said Register, as from the orders, decisions or judgment of said Orphans' Court.

ROADS.

94. The county commissioners of Harford county are authorized, in their discretion, to re-survey and mark and bound