

the public roads in Harford county, when and where they may deem such re-survey necessary and expedient.

95*. Whenever the said commissioners shall deem it expedient that any of the public roads in said county shall be re-surveyed, they shall appoint three persons not interested nor holding lands through which said road may pass, and the persons so appointed, or a majority of them, after giving thirty days' notice thereof, shall meet on the premises and re-survey and mark and bound such public road according to the best evidence they can obtain of the location thereof, either by examination of witnesses, or by reference to former surveys, or by personal inspection of such road; and in the absence of other sufficient and satisfactory evidence, the said examiners are authorized to adopt the centre of such road as the centre thereof according to its true location, and mark and bound such road accordingly, giving it the proper width to which it may be entitled, being not less than thirty feet in any case, and they shall make and return to the county commissioners a plat of such road, with a full report of their proceedings, under their hands.

96. The said examiners, before they proceed to act, shall take an oath to execute the trust reposed in them by the commission to them issued, faithfully and without favor, affection or partiality, which oath shall be endorsed on the commission and returned therewith.

97. After the expiration of ten days from and after the return of the examiners, the said county commissioners, after hearing and considering any objections that may be made, shall proceed to pass judgment thereon, and affirm or reject the same, or order it to be amended, in their discretion, and may continue over their proceedings to their next meeting, and so from time to time, so long as the said commissioners shall, in their judgment, think such continuance necessary for the purpose of justice; and the final judgment of said commissioners, in relation to such road or roads, and the plat thereof as confirmed by such judgment, shall be recorded among the Land Records of said county by the clerk of the Circuit Court, in a separate book, to be by him provided for that purpose, and for such recording, the clerk shall be entitled to charge and be paid by said county commissioners according to the rate for recording such matters authorized by law; and the re-survey of such road or roads as established
