

tion sell and convey any property so by them purchased, or acquired by Harford county in any other manner, for the use of the public schools, and shall apply the proceeds to the use of the public schools.

112. If any person shall at any time make a donation of land, or houses and land, suitable for the public schools, they shall require deeds of the same to be taken in the name of Harford county for the use of the public schools.

113. The treasurer shall keep the accounts and books of the board of school commissioners, and shall be allowed a compensation to be paid from the school fund not exceeding one hundred dollars per annum; and each member of said board shall receive one dollar per day for every day he shall be present at the meeting of said board for the transaction of business.

114*. The board of school commissioners shall report annually, on the first Monday of January, to the county commissioners, a statement of its transactions, with an account of its receipts and expenditures of the past year, and an estimate of the expense for the ensuing year, and the county commissioners shall have the same published in said county.

115. On the failure of any collector to collect and pay over to the treasurer of the school fund the tax for the benefit of the public schools, he shall be subject to the same process provided for the failure to collect and pay over other county taxes.

116. The teachers of every academy in Harford county receiving a donation from the State, shall educate, in addition to the pupils now required by law to be taught gratuitously, an equal number of scholars, to be designated by the executive board aforesaid, so as to fit them to become teachers of the public schools, and shall give to such persons who shall become so educated and qualified, certificates of their being so qualified, and the said board, in the selection of teachers for the public schools, shall give preference to the persons having such certificates.

117. If the teachers of academies, or any of them, shall refuse to receive and educate the persons designated by the said board, on the terms prescribed by said board, such refusal shall forfeit all claim by the teachers refusing, to receive any part of the donation allowed to said academy.