

for any sheep killed or injured by dogs unless the owner shall make affidavit, to be filed with the commissioners, that such sheep were killed or injured by dogs, and that he has no means of recovering the value of his sheep from the owner of the dog that killed or injured them; nor shall the commissioners pay for such sheep out of any other fund than the residue of the dog tax hereby imposed, after deducting the constables' fees for returning said lists, collecting said tax and killing dogs; and every constable shall be allowed twenty-five cents for each dog or bitch killed by him under the provisions of the preceding sections.

133*. Any surplus that may remain on hand of the said tax on the first day of January in any year, after deducting all charges hereinbefore provided for, and all sums paid for sheep killed or injured by dogs, shall be paid by the county commissioners to the treasurer of the board of school commissioners of Harford county, for the use of public schools.

SHERIFF.

134. The sheriff of Harford county shall reside in the jail of said county, or keep a jailer resident therein, (unless the county commissioners shall be of opinion that the jail is not in a comfortable condition for such residence,) under the penalty of two dollars for every day he shall neglect or refuse so to do.

135. He shall be entitled to thirty cents per day for boarding each prisoner confined in said jail.

136. He shall be entitled to two dollars a day for each day he shall attend the sittings of the Circuit Court.

STATE'S ATTORNEY.

137. In all criminal cases removed from any Circuit Court to the Circuit Court for Harford county, and tried, the county commissioners for Harford county may allow to the State's Attorney for said county, in addition to the sum allowed by law, such compensation, not to exceed the sum of thirty dollars for any one case, as they may deem just and proper, to be levied by the county commissioners of the county from which such cause was removed, at their next annual levy.
