

21*. Nothing in this article shall be construed to release the bond of the treasurer or sheriff of Howard county from liability for any duties or responsibility heretofore imposed upon them by law.

ELECTIONS.

22. Howard county is divided into five election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and all elections for public officers shall be held in each of said election districts at the place now established by law for that purpose. *The bounds of election district number one in said county shall be as follows, to wit: beginning at a point where the old Annapolis road crosses the Columbia Turnpike road, and following the said old Annapolis road until it reaches a point at or near George Stocket's house, then by a road leading from the said old Annapolis road through the lands of William J. Timanus and Ashbury Fisher, until it intersects the county road from Hillen to Elkridge Landing, and then following the lines of said election district as heretofore established, to the place of beginning.

23. The judges and clerks of elections in said county, shall each receive three dollars a day for each day they shall be engaged in the discharge of their respective duties.

JURORS.

24*. The pay of each juror of Howard county shall be two dollars for every day he shall attend as such juror.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

25. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables in said county, to wit: For election district number one, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number two, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number four, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number five, three justices of the peace and two constables.

26. The constables in said county shall be entitled to the following fees: For serving a summons for debt under fifty dollars and return, forty cents; for serving a summons for debt over fifty dollars and return, fifty cents; for serving scire facias and