

73. All that part of the charter of the city of Annapolis which gives to the mayor, recorder or aldermen the power of holding a court of hustings within said city, and all other parts of said charter repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this article in relation to the city of Annapolis, are repealed.

74. The public lands and buildings heretofore purchased and built by this State or Anne Arundel county, in said city, are reserved and continued forever to the uses to which they have been allotted, and the judges of the several courts which have usually held their courts in the said city in the public court-house thereof, shall and may continue to do so; and the justices, commissioners and sheriff of Anne Arundel county, shall have, hold and exercise their jurisdiction in as full and ample manner in the said city as heretofore.

CIRCUIT COURT.

75. There shall be two regular common-law terms of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county at the city of Annapolis, commencing on the third Monday in April and fourth Monday in October in each year.

76. The judge of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county, in his discretion, may appoint intermediate terms between the common-law terms for the transaction of equity business, to which equity process shall be returnable, as well as to the stated terms of the court.

77. Whenever a judgment, or decree, or decretal order is rendered or passed in said court, it shall be the duty of the clerk to enter upon an index to be kept for that purpose, the names of all defendants against whom the same shall have been rendered or passed.

78. Whenever a judgment rendered in said court shall be superseded, it shall be the duty of the clerk to index the names of all persons superseding the same.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

79. There shall be seven county commissioners for Anne Arundel county.
