

month thereafter, the county commissioners shall fill such vacancy.

52. Any person who shall be duly elected or appointed to the said offices of trustee or clerk, who shall refuse to serve therein, shall forfeit the sum of five dollars, to be recovered, with costs, by action of debt, in the name of the county commissioners for said county, before any justice of the peace for said county, for the use of primary schools; and any person who shall be elected or appointed to such offices, and who shall have accepted thereof, or who shall fail to declare his refusal to accept, who shall neglect the performance of the duties thereof, shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered, with costs of suit, in the manner and to the use aforesaid.

53. He shall, whenever a special district meeting shall be called by the trustees, give notice of the time and place of such meeting, in the manner aforesaid, at least ten days before the time of holding the same; and when any district meeting shall be adjourned for a longer time than one month, he shall give notice thereof, in writing, as aforesaid, and so of every district meeting that may be held.

54. After a school house shall have been erected or purchased in any school district, no alteration shall be made in the location of the school house for said district, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the taxables attending at a district meeting, regularly convened after thirty days' notice thereof, nor unless said alteration shall be approved by the county commissioners, or a majority of them; nor shall any alteration be made in the location or bounds of any district or districts unless by the votes of two-thirds of the taxables attending district meetings, regularly convened after notice as aforesaid, in the several districts to be affected by such change, nor unless such alteration shall be approved by the county commissioners, or a majority of them.

55. The county commissioners of said county shall appoint three inspectors of schools of said county, who shall hold their offices for one year from the date of their appointment, and until their successors are qualified, and shall be re-eligible.

56. The county commissioners shall furnish each inspector with a certificate of his appointment within ten days thereafter,
