

10. They, or a majority of them, shall meet between the first and the tenth days of November, yearly, and appoint a fit person to be overseer of the alms-house in said county, and other proper officers and servants necessary for carrying on the business of said corporation.

11. They may allow such overseer any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars per annum, and so pro rata during his continuance in office.

12. The said overseer shall give bond, payable to the said trustees, with good and sufficient security, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as overseer.

13. The trustees may remove such overseer in their discretion, and appoint another in his place.

14. They shall meet four times in each year, in the first week in January, May, August and November, or oftener if necessary, and by a majority of votes make the rules and regulations aforesaid.

15. All meetings of the said trustees shall be held at the alms-house, except such as may be necessary for the settlement and passage of their accounts with the county commissioners.

16. They shall provide suitable farming stock and implements of husbandry for said alms-house, and cause all paupers who may be maintained therein, to perform such labor as may be consistent with their health and ability, and may conduce to the interests of the institution.

17. They shall dispose of all products of the farm belonging to said alms-house, over and above what may be necessary for the support of the inmates thereof, and the amount of the money arising on such sale shall annually, on the first day of January, be returned, on oath, and paid to the county commissioners of said county.

18. They shall, under the penalty of fifty dollars each, make out and render to the county commissioners of said county, at their first meeting in the month of March in each year, a statement of their accounts and expenditures, with the necessary
