

they shall graduate the sum according to the necessities of the applicant.

CRIER.

88. The crier of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county shall, in addition to his fees, receive a per diem allowance of the same amount as the bailiff of said court, for every day the court sits, either for the despatch of the business of the county or removed cases, either civil or criminal, from other counties, to be levied and paid in all respects as the allowance of bailiff and other expenses of the court.

ELECTIONS.

89. Anne Arundel county is divided into seven election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and all elections for public officers shall be held in each of said districts at the place now established by law for that purpose.

FENCES.

90. All fences constructed upon or near the dividing line or lines of tracts of land belonging to different proprietors, and intended to enclose the separate farms of such proprietors, in Anne Arundel county, who have or may agree to join in making the same, if made of posts and rails, shall be at least four feet high from the surface of the ground, of good materials, the average distance between the lower rails not to exceed four inches; all worm division fences to be made of good and substantial rails, staked and ridered, and at least five feet high from the surface of the ground to the top of the upper rail.

91. All other division fences if of stone to be four feet high; or if of wood or embankment and wood or hedges, to be at least five feet high; and all division brush fences made upon embankments to be at least three feet high and the embankments not less than two feet high.

92. All such division fences shall be kept in good repair, and the labor and cost of making and repairing the same shall be equally divided among the parties interested.

93. If either party shall neglect to make or to keep in good repair his portion of said division fence, after twenty days'
