

streets, alleys and roads aforesaid, and may cause all obstructions, nuisances, impediments and offensive substances to be removed therefrom.

59. They may appoint a weigher of said town, who shall attend and take care of the scales thereto belonging, and shall weigh all hay, corn fodder, or other article of provender brought into said town for sale, and shall, under the penalty of five dollars, give a certificate of the weight thereof.

60. If any person shall sell, or offer to sell, by himself, his servant or slave, any of the articles mentioned in the preceding section, in the said town, without such certificate, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding seventy-five cents for every such offence.

61. The said commissioners shall annually, between the first day of April and first day of May, publish at the court-house, and in a newspaper published in Kent county, if there be one published, an abstract showing the amount of taxes levied for the previous year up to the period of publication, including all taxes levied on the property in said town; all money collected for license and due for the same; all fines, and the total income from every source, and also their expenditures for the year, stating each class of expenditure and the balance due to or from the said commissioners.

62. If the said commissioners shall refuse or neglect to comply with the directions of the preceding section, they shall be individually liable to presentment and fine not exceeding ten dollars for the use of the primary schools in said town.

63. No part of the property of Washington College shall be liable to assessment and tax by the said commissioners, except that which has been leased and has buildings thereon.

64. If any person shall butcher any cattle, sheep or hog within said town, except in such part thereof as shall be appointed by the said commissioners, he shall be fined five dollars.

65. Any person who shall engross, or get into his hands by purchase, contract or promise, any victuals or provisions, (except fish and oysters, beef by the quarter or larger quantity, pork by the hog, corn or flour and bread, butter in vessels exceeding twenty pounds net, cheese, beef or pork in barrels, or larger casks, live