

72. He shall rent out the stalls and shambles in the market house, and the rooms and apartments over the same, and shall keep an account of such rents and apply the same as fines are hereinafter directed to be applied.

73. He shall receive for his services from said commissioners the sum of fifty dollars per annum.

74. No person having charge or command of any vessel shall lay or place said vessel so as to obstruct the ferry boats at the public wharf and ferry at Chestertown from coming to and landing passengers, horses, carriages or other articles, at the ferry stairs of said ferry, and any person so offending shall forfeit the sum of five dollars, to be recovered by the clerk of the market before any justice of the peace as other small debts.

75. If any vessel shall lie more than thirty-six hours at the public wharf in Chestertown for the purpose of unloading her cargo, or shall come to the said wharf empty, the person having charge or command of said vessel shall forfeit and pay at the rate of fifteen cents per ton for every ton's burthen the said vessel may be of, for every twenty-four hours she shall lie at said wharf thereafter, to be recovered as directed in the preceding section.

76. All money received by the said clerk under the two last preceding sections shall be paid to the county commissioners of Kent county for the use of the county, and the said wharf and ferry stairs shall be kept in repair in the same manner as public roads and bridges in said county.

77. If any person shall fix or set, with stakes or poles, any gill net or seine in Chester River from Skulking Point to the mouth of Morgan's Creek, and shall omit or neglect to have them taken out of said river on or before the twentieth of June thereafter, he shall forfeit two dollars for every offence, to be recovered by indictment in the Circuit Court for Kent or Queen Anne's county, as the case may be.

78. All fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed in this article for the protection of the market and market house in said town, may be recovered by warrant in the name of said commissioners before any justice of the peace of the county where the offender
