Circuit Court of Kent county within one year and have the same abated upon showing cause.

107. The said town commissioners shall have power to make such ordinances as may be necessary to protect and advance the health, peace and welfare of the town, not contrary to law.

108. The limits of said town shall be a square whose sides shall measure eight hundred and eighty yards each, and said sides shall be four hundred and forty yards distant from the centre of the crossing of the present roads in said town.

109. The said corporation shall issue no scrip, certificate, note, or other device or evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

HOGS.

110. Any swine found running at large in the village of Chesterville, or the village of The Head of Sassafras, in Kent county, or within two miles of the centre of the last named village, fixing what was formerly Clayton's Hotel as the centre thereof, may be taken up and sold by any person in said villages, or the neighborhood thereof; Provided, five days' notice of such sale shall be given, and the owner may at any time before a sale redeem such swine by paying to the person who took up the same fifty cents per head; and if any swine are sold under this section, the proceeds shall be paid to the treasurer of the school district in which such swine may be taken up, after deducting the expenses of keeping the same, and one dollar per head for the person who took up and sold the same.

JURORS.

111. Each juror summoned to attend the Circuit Court for Kent county shall be entitled to receive, for each day he shall attend said court as a juror, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, and in addition thereto an allowance of six and a quarter cents for every mile his place of residence shall be distant from the place of holding the Circuit Court, such mileage to be computed for each day he shall attend court.

112. The county commissioners of said county shall levy annually, one year in advance, such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to discharge all claims which may accrue for